

"The Family Outing" by Gary Lee Price

"Bicycling is human scale - a living, breathing alternative to the city's domination by motor vehicles. There is magic in blending with traffic, feeling the wind in one's face, the sheer fact of traversing the city under one's own power."

- Charles Komanoff, cycling advocate