The information regarding this agency was obtained following the preparation and most recent adoption of the Coordinated Plan. This Addendum is included for additional reference and the incorporation of this profile is intended as part of the next update of the Coordinated Public Transit – Human Services Transportation Plan.

Cancer Justice Network

Type of Transportation Provider: Private Non-Profit Agency

Agency mission statement or general description of services

The mission of the Cancer Justice Network (CJN) is to assist low-income and minority populations in Cincinnati with receiving early and timely screening and treatment for cancer, through the provision of timely transportation options. CJN is a growing network of partner non-profit agencies sharing the mission of helping low-income elderly and disabled Cincinnati residents overcome bureaucratic and logistical barriers to receiving screening and treatment for cancer. It currently has 20 partner agencies and is a non-profit organization. Most transportation services are provided through a partnership with Cincinnati Area Senior Services (CASS).
